

Calvin Buser M. Laughlin

THE 124TH INFANTRY

FLORIDA

(DIXIE DIVISION)

FIRST TO BERLIN

Words and Music by
ALEXANDER BEACH POOLEY

Published by
A. B. POOLEY
2000 MOHAWK ST., CHICAGO, ILL.

The One Hundred And Twenty Fourth Infantry

FLORIDA

Words and Music by
PVT. A.B. POOLEY U.S.A.

Back in his - to - ry tales of vic - to - ry Filled the air, of those who do and dare.
Sons of lib - er - ty look and you can see At a glance, they're glad to go to France.

In the Rev - o - lution and in Sixty One Ev - 'ry son of Flor - i - da shouldered a gun Once a
From Mi - am - i to the shores of Tampa Bay Need not show those Flor - i - da Crack ers the way Real A - gain they're march - ing a way Ev - 'ry bo - dy's hap - py and gay The mer - i - cans ev - 'ry one Just the kind to beat back the Hun The Old Second Flor - i - da is still in the game Though they're got a dif - ferent name

Hun - dred and Twen - ty Fourth will come to the fore As they did in days of yore

CHORUS

Geor-gia, Al - a-bam' and Flor-i - da — Are march-ing a-way hand in hand —

p ff

And of the three — Flor-i - da for me — There's no oth-er like it in the land — The Dix-ie Div-is - ion is now in the fight — Just tell all the world

That they're go-ing to win — But the Hundred and Twen-ty Fourth In fan - try — will be the first to march through Ber - lin — ¹ ² lin

